ABOUT US

MODUS is a full service, professional creative team that organizes corporate, commercial, and cultural events independently, or on behalf of our clients.

We are experts at promotional strategy, and implement our plans with precision.

Client satisfaction is the most important factor in our corporate culture. If a client knows exactly what they want, we follow their directives. If a client has a vision of what they want to achieve, but is not quite sure how to do it, we confer, offer various options and develop a plan. When we execute the plan we keep the client apprised of our progress every step of the way. Deadlines are met and made, budgets are strictly adhered to.

We have a network throughout the region that we tap into for everything needed to put together a brilliant event.

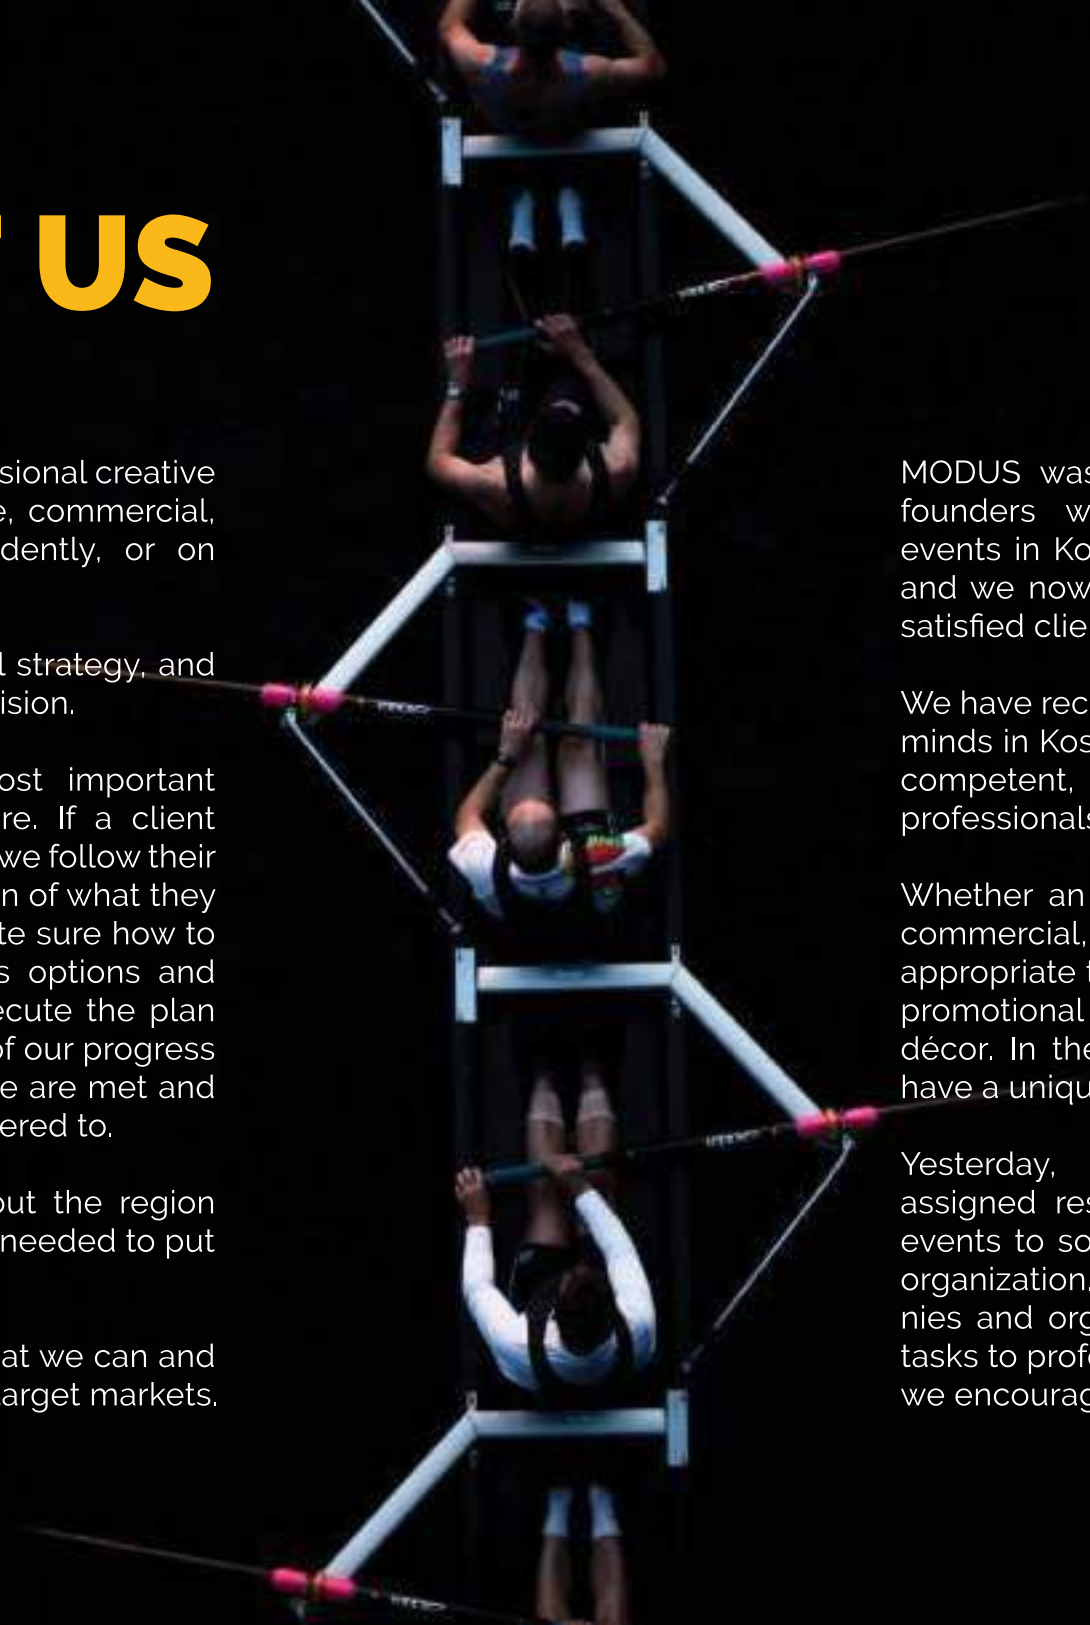

Our clients can rest assured that we can and will do everything to impress target markets.

MODUS was established in 2011, but our founders were independently producing events in Kosovo for a decade prior to that, and we now boast a long list of thoroughly satisfied clients.

We have recruited some of the most creative minds in Kosovo and honed them into highly competent, dedicated and enthusiastic professionals in the field.

Whether an event is corporate, cultural, or commercial, MODUS will incorporate the appropriate themes, formats, design layouts, promotional materials, merchandise and décor. In the end you and your guests will have a unique and memorable experience.

Yesterday, companies and organizations assigned responsibility for the planning of events to someone within their company or organization. Today, more and more companies and organizations are entrusting those tasks to professionals such as ourselves, and we encourage you to do the same.

THREE IMPORTANT VALUES

TIMING

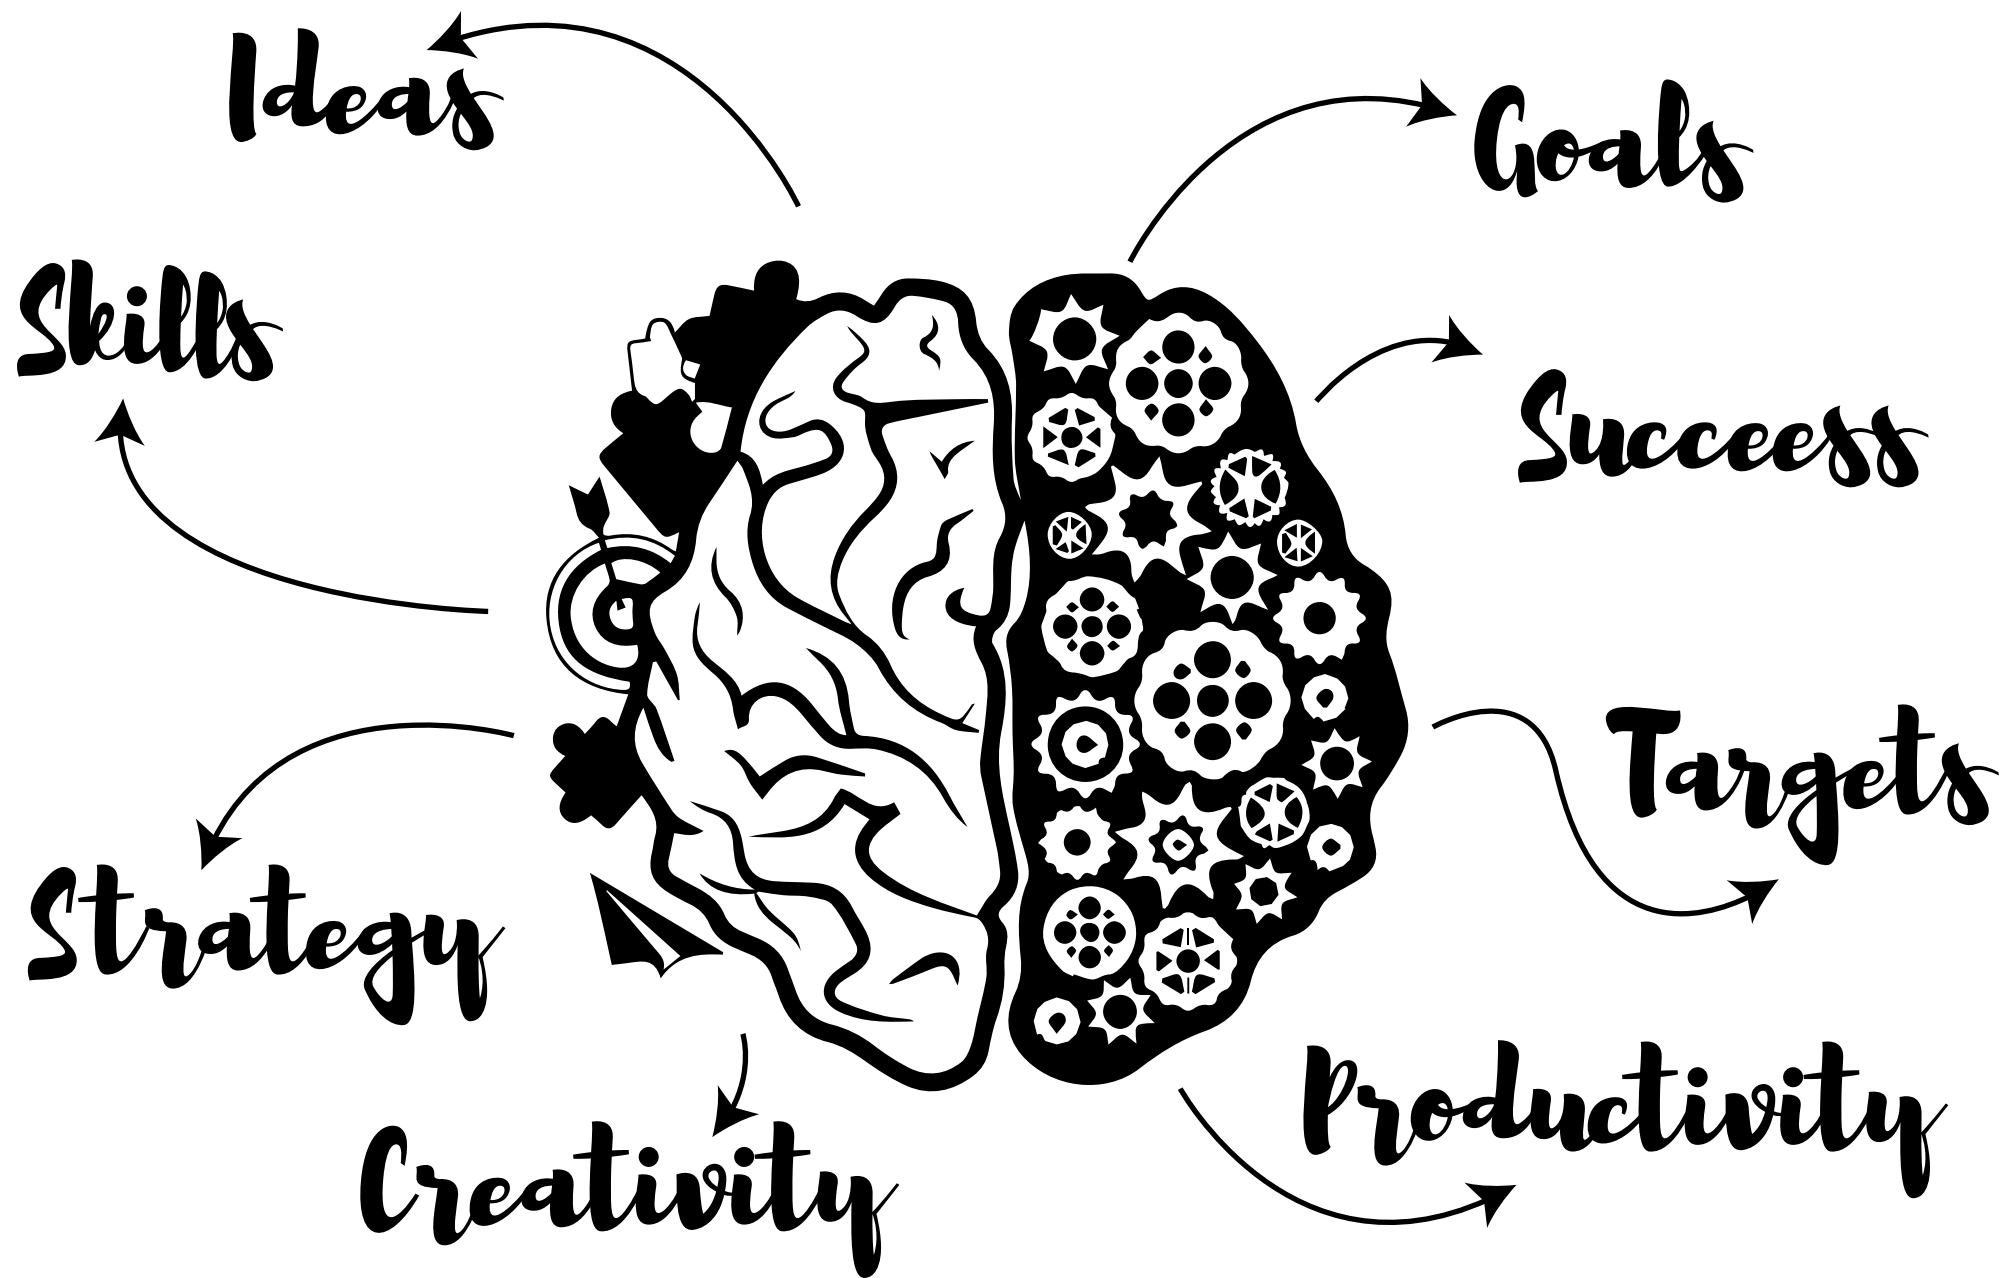

We are experts at promotional strategy, and implement our plans with precision.

COORDINATION

We have a network throughout the region that we tap into for everything needed to put together a brilliant event.

ATTENTION

When we execute the plan we keep the client apprised of our progress every step of the way.

COMMERCIAL EVENTS

Clever commercial entities turn to MODUS to organize their events because they know they can trust us.

If they already have an advertising and marketing strategy and campaign, we work with in it when planning an event. But we are also fully capable of coming up with new messages and approaches to reach a client's target markets.

We can help you establish your brand, grow your brand, and reposition your brand, according to your business plan.

In 2011 we organized Kosovo's first Beer fest. The annual party has helped a number of new breweries, domestic and international, gain a foothold in the market by exposing their products and goods to thousands of thirsty Kosovars who are looking for a good time.

The Beer Fest stage quickly became coveted territory for performing artists looking to launch material, and reach new fans.

CULTURAL EVENTS

Our cultural events bring together people who wish to express their traditions and values and meet like minded people.

We work with the artists who are featured in our presentations to maximize the entertainment value for our patrons. We chose our venues carefully, factoring in what they can add to the events we stage within them.

MODUS is the industry leader in the Balkans region when it comes to event organizing. Our events are followed by people from all over the world, and we continue to learn from the international impresarios we are networking with, so our shows keep getting better and better.

CORPORATE EVENTS

MODUS also works with corporations to further their causes. We organize meetings, conferences, exhibitions, celebrations, business trips, team buildings, marketing and PR events, product launches, and anything else our client's desire.

It is always a pleasure for us to work with organizations that are comprised of consummate professionals who are open to collaborating to create events that leave guests slack-jawed and smiling.

THE SUMMIT

ELECTRONIC MUSIC FESTIVAL

A vibrant, colorful light show at a festival. The scene is filled with bright, abstract light patterns in shades of blue, green, yellow, and red, creating a dynamic and energetic atmosphere. In the foreground, the silhouettes of people are visible, suggesting a large crowd of attendees. The overall mood is one of excitement and celebration.

GREAT MUSIC

Many internationally acclaimed DJs have shared the stage with Kosovo's best at Germia Park in Prishtina over the annual two day event.

GREAT IMPACT

THE SUMMIT is a huge source of inspiration for Kosovar artists, as they have an opportunity to meet and learn from some of the greatest talents in electronica.

For three years the festival has drawn electronica enthusiasts to Prishtina from all over Kosovo. Word has now spread beyond our borders and SUMMIT is starting to attract shiny happy dancers from near and far.
